

TENTS ARE GONE

RIVERSIDE CAMP MEETING CLOSED SUNDAY EVENING

Annual Meeting of the State Holiness Association Closed After Two Weeks Session at Riverside Park and Moves the Big Tents—Has Been Here More Than Two Weeks—Is a Part of the History of Wichita—Hundreds of Dollars Raised for Educational and Missionary Purposes—Big Crowds Sunday.

Sunday the big tent meeting of the State Holiness association closed its annual camp at Riverside and the tents were taken away. This meeting has become a part of the history of Wichita. Every year the big tents are spread in the park and thousands of people attend the services.

Hundreds come from surrounding counties to attend for a day or two, and many camp on the ground during the entire progress of the meeting, which lasts usually from two to three weeks. This year there were about thirty-five tents in all pitched about the big one in which the meetings were held. In each of these tents was a family and some of them were large enough that two or three families could find accommodation. The meeting was directly under charge of Rev. Joseph H. Smith of Indianapolis, known as the "tent evangelist." For years he owned tents that he shipped about with him, and in which he held meetings. He asked for nothing more than the mere traveling expenses of the outfit, and it is said that he often had to go down into his own pocket to make up deficiencies. He is a man of more than ordinary power as a speaker and usually brings his hearers to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

Mr. Smith was assisted by Rev. C. S. Nambam, financial secretary of the Winfield College, and Rev. G. Lovelock, presiding elder of the Winfield district Southwest Kansas conference. Besides these there were as many as a dozen other ministers from this city, Kingman, Pratt, Winfield and various other towns in this part of Kansas.

Sunday afternoon and evening there were as many as 5,000 people visited the grounds at Riverside park, and probably two-thirds of that number attended the exercises in the tent.

The expenses of the association during the summer season are hundreds of dollars each week and this has been contributed on the grounds during the session at this city. Besides this sum there has been large amounts raised for the Winfield College and other educational and missionary purposes.

During the meeting just closed more than one hundred have professed a closer walk with Him whom they claim as the hope of the life that is to be.

"SMITH WAS A PEACH"

Other Side of the Story That Belle Plaine had a Walk Away.

Last Saturday the Wichita base ball team was defeated by the Belle Plaine team by a score of 10 to 9, and yet the Belle Plaine team say they had an easy victory. The score shows that the easy time they had failed to appear. It was anybody's game until the last man was out. And then again they say that the Wichita boys could not find their pitcher; but they found him so well that they had to remove him in the fifth inning and he was the easiest thing they had run up against this season. The Wichita boys lost the game on errors and by the very "rocky" decisions of that country umpire. Oh, but this was a peach—we don't think. And our boys were in any condition to play ball after driving twenty-three miles over rough roads in an old bus, and then getting out and playing ball on full stomachs. They say they are champions of southwestern Kansas, but we don't know who have been telling them that they are ball players. We will give them a chance to beat us again next Saturday afternoon, June 12, on the Wichita grounds.

CHANGED HIS LUNCH.

Cockburn's Tale.

"A lunch with a good strong cup of coffee used to answer my needs for noon-day, but of late I have been compelled to leave off the coffee because it made me throw up occasionally. I tried chocolate but that didn't fit the taste, neither did tea. Finally my wife suggested that I use her drink. Postum Cereal, the grain beverage. It proved so near like fine Mocha in color and taste that it suited me vastly better than any of the other breakfast drinks and the stomach and bowels made no more complaint. In fact I have recovered entirely from my trouble of this sort, and we couldn't keep house without Postum for our coffee." So says Geo. A. Cockburn, gracer, at Lansing, Mich. Write him.

Postum Cereal is a pure grain beverage that looks and tastes like coffee. Those who cannot drink berry coffee will find Postum exactly fills the want and also delights the children.

Today in their private car for a trip over the Wichita and Western.

Jennie Fay of Los Angeles, Cal., is in the city visiting Miss Florence Fuller at her home 832 South Topeka avenue.

HEARD AND OVERHEARD.

Rudolph Hatfield will go to New York Wednesday.

Roy Terry has come in from Baldwin university for the summer vacation.

Nine cars of stock came in over the Frisco yesterday from Bentley, Kan.

County Commissioners met yesterday for the first time under the new law as a board of equalization.

George Dennis and Miss Bertha Stout were married Sunday night by Rev. Slutz of the First Methodist church.

Harry Dunbar came in Sunday evening from the eastern part of the state and left on last night's Missouri Pacific. He says the garden of the central states is the Arkansas Valley and notes the many improvements and evidences of prosperity in Wichita.

On Sunday evening Rev. Slutz of the First M. E. church preached from Ecclesiastes 2:8. He took as the subject: "Two are better than one." He preached to the Knights of the Macabees, who attended in a body. After the services were over Rev. Slutz returned home and retired. About 10:30 the doctor was aroused and asked to marry a couple. Now the members of the Macabees are enjoying a lull over the coincidence regarding the text which the doctor took and the fulfillment of it.

Death of Ben Brooks.

The Bloomfield (Ind.) Herald prints the following:

Brooks—Died at Bloomfield, Ind., June 1st, at the residence of Dr. J. W. Gray. Rona Belle Brooks, aged 16 years, the daughter of P. B. Brooks of Wichita, Kansas. She died of Bright's disease. She was a member of the First M. E. church of Wichita and an active member of the Epworth League. She was loved by all who knew her for her Christian faith and sunny disposition. During the last three months she was suffering from Bright's disease. Though sick and a great sufferer, she never complained. With her firm faith in God she received so much of His grace in her heart that she was able to bear all without a murmur. She would like to live, but was ready to die and often assured her parents and friends that all was well, so she was ready to be called home. The Epworth League, on the day of her funeral, sent a token of their appreciation of her in the form of their league badge, made up of lovely and fragrant flowers. She has made a good impression upon all who knew her—was loved by young and old alike. The morning of her death she called her parents to her, when she said: "I believe I am dying." Calling each one to her she said "Good bye," but her strength failing so fast with her last breath she said "Good bye, all," and fell asleep. She was tenderly cared for in the family of Dr. Gray, where all was done by them and many other friends to administer to her comfort.

In Memoriam.

The Pickwick club passed the following resolutions on the death of one of its members, Rona Brooks:

Death has entered our midst for the first time and called away a member dear to all. Sadly and sorrowfully we speak her name; still we know she dwells in a brighter and happier home than this earthly one.

Whereas, Our Heavenly Father has seen fit to call to the beautiful home above our dear friend and companion, Rona Brooks; and,

Whereas, By the death of her we lose a true friend and consistent member, and her family a loving daughter and sister; therefore, be it

Resolved, That from this time hence we keep sacred her memory.

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to her family.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent as a token of respect and remembrance to the bereaved family. In this, their time of sorrow; that these resolutions be placed upon our club records and a copy printed in the daily papers.

FOOTE STANLEY, EDNA STILLWELL, MARY BITTING, Committee.

POSTAL CONGRESS TOURISTS

Special Train Passes Through Chicago on Its Return East.

Chicago, June 7.—A special train on the Chicago and Alton, consisting of nine Pullman cars, two dining cars and an observation car, arrived here this morning at 7:20 with the delegates to the Universal Postal congress, their wives and friends, in all about 200 people. The delegates, proper, to the congress number about ninety. The post-office officials who accompanied this excursion were First Assistant Postmaster General Heath, Second Assistant Postmaster General Shillaberger, Captain White, general superintendent of the United States mail service, Captain Brooks, general superintendent of foreign and United States railway mail service, and five or six other prominent officials. The five American representatives to the congress, headed by General Batcher, who is president of the congress, are all present. There were present also Spencer Walpole, postmaster general of Great Britain; Dr. Neuner, postmaster general of Austria; Bruno Fritsch, director general of post-offices and telegraph of Germany; Saba Pasha, postmaster general of Egypt; Postmaster General Stenson of Denmark; Postmaster General Heyerdahl of Norway; Postmaster General Ansell of France; Postmaster General Chavez of Mexico. Nearly every other nation was represented by its highest postal official. Accompanying the delegation were Count Lichnerowicz, minister of Belgium to the United States; Mirza Khan, Persian minister to the United States, and Chin Ton Ye, Korean minister to the United States.

The Palmer house was tendered and accepted by the delegates as their headquarters during their stay in the city. Mayor Harrison welcomed the delegation in a brief speech, which was responded to by E. Rosewater of Omaha, and Spencer Walpole. The delegates then entered carriages and were driven over the city, ending up at Jackson Park for luncheon and entertainment during the afternoon.

They left at 8:30 tonight for Niagara Falls and Buffalo, making short stops at Albany, Syracuse, and Rochester on the way from the Falls to Boston. From there the delegates will go to Atlantic City, N. J., and Philadelphia, thence to Washington.

MYSTIC SHRINERS IN DETROIT

Trainload of Mystic Leave Chicago for a Great Big Trip.

Chicago, June 7.—Nearly 500 members of the Mystic Shrine left for Detroit over the Grand Trunk today, where they will spend a week in taking part in the Imperial Council meeting of Shriner.

The chair cars of the "Medina special," which carries the delegation to Detroit, were occupied by the ladies of the party, as the social features of the Supreme Council are to be quite as important as the business ones. Accompanying the local Mystic Shriner, who are in the majority, were the "Zurrah" of Minneapolis, the "Tripoli" of Milwaukee, the "Saladines" of Grand Rapids, the "Kaaba" from Davenport, Iowa, and branches of the Ancient Arabian Order of the Mystic Shrine from all over the west.

Detroit, Mich., June 7.—Some 2,000 Arabs of the Mystic Shrine are expected in the time of Detroit tonight, with perhaps as many more on route across the deserts to the annual gathering of the imperial council. The oasis of Detroit was badly water-soaked today, but the weather cleared in time to permit a spectacular entrance of the nobles from Medina Temple, Chicago, and Zurrah Temple, Minneapolis, this evening. The temples of about 100 were escorted up Woodward avenue by the Detroit Arab patrol and brethren of the Moab Temple, several hundred strong, the visitors' ladies riding first in carriages. The evolutions of Zurrah Temple drill corps of Minneapolis won much applause. The headquarters of some of the temples are marvels of fantastic beauty and oddity. The Syrians of Cincinnati tonight gave an opening in an uncanny looking cavern inhabited by spirits. Syria Temple of Pittsburgh has transformed a Russell house prior into an attractive bower. The chief attraction of the Hellams of Dallas, Texas, is a generous supply of rare tarantula juice. 180 years old. The Zenn of Elrie have a big band, and a reputation as entertainers, and the brethren of a score of other temples have invented novel features to add to the general jollity. Tonight was spent in visiting. The actual functions of the meeting begin tomorrow.

FAREWELL TO PHILADELPHIA

South American Delegates Start Out to Tour the Country.

Philadelphia, June 7.—The South American delegates who attended the formal opening in this city of the Philadelphia Commercial museum made farewell to Philadelphia today, when they started on a tour of the industrial centers of this country. The trip was planned for the purpose of enabling the delegates to get an idea of the vast diversity of this country's manufacturing interests.

The baby said (and gave) that yell which makes his father swell, "I may not be a howling swell, but I'm a swelling howl."

DUE TO HYPNOTISM

IS THE FATAL QUARREL OF TWO BROTHERS AT ST. LOUIS.

Or so the Relatives of Joseph and George Feilerick Account For It—George Was Hypnotized a Year Ago at an Entertainment and Has Not Been Himself Since—Unfortunate Woeful Attempts Murder and Accomplishes Suicide—An F. K. Proves His Title—Day's News of Crime and Accident.

St. Louis, June 7.—As a sequel to a terrible struggle in a little room at Albi avenue, Joseph Feilerick will probably die within twenty-four hours and a charge of murder will be against George his 27-year-old brother. From stories told by relatives of the dying man and the imprisoned brother, it would seem that the prisoner is responsible for the crime. It is one more case into which enters that mysterious power termed hypnotism. The Feilerick family is one of the oldest in St. Louis. While in San Francisco one year ago George was hypnotized at an entertainment. Since then he has acted strangely and his crazed attack upon Joseph is attributed to this influence.

UNLUCKY SUITOR SHOOT.

Washington, June 7.—The throng of government clerks and others thronging up Pennsylvania avenue near Four and one-half street, about ten minutes past 9 o'clock this morning were startled by the attempted murder of Miss Dorothy E. Squires and the suicide of Charles Barber, a patent attorney, who had gained much notoriety of late by his eccentric actions. Barber shot Miss Squires and then turning the revolver on himself put a pistol ball through his brain, causing almost instantaneous death.

Miss Squires is still alive, but the extent of her injuries is not yet known. Barber had considerable of a patent practice, but had been growing more and more eccentric for several years and of late many of his friends thought him mentally unbalanced. Miss Squires formerly worked for him as a stenographer, and upon leaving his employ he annoyed her with his attentions, threatening to injure her if she would not permit him to call. Finally the matter became so serious that she had to appeal to the courts for protection and he was placed under bonds to keep the peace. He seems not to have desisted, however, for since then the girl has received several threatening letters from him, in the last of which he announced that he would do something which would bring upon her a bad name.

Barber also came before the Washington police in another bad and similar role a few days before, being brought into police court for an assault case with some sensational features arising out of a struggle for a fine dog he possessed. He came to Washington from Pittsburg, N. Y., and was associated in a few cases with the late Benjamin Butler of Massachusetts, the one time presidential candidate.

Miss Squires was shot in the back of the head, but at the Emergency hospital, whither she was taken, it is said that the wound probably will not result seriously.

ELECTION JUDGE SUICIDES.

Chicago, June 7.—August Miller, an election judge in the Twenty-eighth precinct of the Twenty-sixth ward, shot and killed himself this morning after having been excused for half an hour on account of illness. Miller had been acting peculiarly all morning and was finally taken to a hospital for a while. When a word he walked out, went to his room, got a revolver, and going to the barn, about 100 feet from the house, put a bullet through his brain. Business reverses are thought to have unsettled Miller's mind.

PAYNE PROVES HIS LINEAGE.

Lexington, K. Y., June 7.—J. Breckinridge Payne, descendant of one of the best families of Kentucky, shot Percy Stackhouse, a driver and trainer of trotting horses, inflicting perhaps a fatal wound. Payne is reduced in circumstances and was living at the Stackhouse home. A quarrel over a slight matter brought on a collision, in which Payne used his revolver. He has been held for trial and it is said will be defended by his kinsman, W. C. Breckinridge.

WILLIAM FOLEY ON TRIAL.

Liberty, Mo., June 7.—William S. Foley who is charged with the murder, last November, of his brother, John S. Foley, was placed on trial here this morning. The court room was crowded and the trial, because of the prominence of the Foleys and the atrocity of the crime, promises to produce a long array of sensations. Over 100 witnesses will be called. Foley is thirty years old, and prior to his arrest bore an enviable reputation. If convicted, it will be on circumstantial evidence, which is very strong against him. Evidence tends to show that he killed the victim as they lay asleep and that his motive was to secure a quick division of the Foley farm. The family is one of the most prominent in Clay county.

BESSIE LITTLE'S MURDER.

Dayton, O., June 7.—The case of Albert J. Franz, the condemned murderer of Bessie Little, came up in the circuit court this morning. His attorneys are seeking to save him from electrocution by alleging errors in the trial before the common pleas court, and seeking a new trial. They claim that three of the jurors had expressed opinions in the case. The arguments closed this afternoon and decision was reserved.

A GOVERNOR INTERCEDES.

Albany, N. Y., June 7.—Former Governor John Young Brown of Kentucky and William M. Crocker of the same state, called on Governor Black today and urged executive clemency in behalf of a resident of their state who is serving a term in one of the prisons in this state. Governor Brown did not wish to make public the name of the convict for whom he was interceding.

MAXWELL'S HANIMAN INSANE.

St. Louis, June 7.—Michael Fortin, the man who hanged Walter H. Lennox Maxwell, the slayer of C. Arthur Preker, has been taken to the insane asylum, his mind having gone wrong from constant brooding over what was one of the most notable cases ever tried in St. Louis. Fortin is well known in St. Louis and the county, having held various positions here before the county and city separated.

DEAN COMPANY PEOPLES

New York, June 7.—Alfred L. Gelin and Gerald M. Eberman, who are said to be connected with the firm of E. S. Dean & Co., were arrested today by United States officers. Upon indictments found last week, three warrants were issued today, and James

B. Kellogg, Harry D. Kyle and Sam Keller, manager of the E. S. Dean company, were arrested. Kellogg's counsel says he never had any connection with the E. S. Dean company. Kyle was connected with the firm of Theodore Myers & Co., which executed orders for the Dean company. All indictments are for violation of the postal laws. The prisoners were released on bail.

RAIL PIERCES A COACH.

Chicago, June 7.—Three men and one woman were more or less seriously hurt today when a rail which was being loaded on a flat car was struck by an express train on the Illinois Central railroad. The rail stove through the front of one of the passenger coaches and struck a woman who was occupying a seat. The others injured were laborers. The injured are Mrs. C. L. Olmstead of Chicago, Thomas Murphy, foreman of a section gang; Louis Guzza and an Italian laborer whose name is not known. All are expected to recover.

INSANITY AND PANIC.

Chicago, June 7.—An insane woman caused a panic among the Sunday school children in the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal church, and in their frantic efforts to get out of the little boys and girls were thrown to the floor and trampled upon. Several of them were badly bruised, but it is thought, none of their injuries will result seriously. The woman, who gave the name of Mrs. Olivia Oakes, was taken home by her friends. It is said that her mind had become unsettled on the subject of religion.

MINE EXPLOSION.

Monongahela, Pa., June 7.—By an explosion of gas in the Black Diamond mines of the Brown Coal company two miles south, this morning, several men were injured, but none fatally. The explosion occurred about 7 o'clock. A rescuing party went immediately into the mine and all of the men were taken out before they were overcome by the deadly afterdamp. The gas is said to have been ignited by an open lamp, and the escape of the 300 miners was remarkable.

GRAIN ELEVATOR BURNED.

Pontiac, Ill., June 7.—At Saunemin last night a grain elevator containing 30,000 bushels of oats belonging to Bartlett, Frasier & Co. of Chicago, was burned to the ground.

EMBEZZLER SENTENCED.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 7.—W. H. House, ex-assistant city attorney, convicted of embezzlement of city funds, was sentenced today to two years imprisonment in the Western penitentiary.

THE HEKIA IN PORT.

Christiansburg, June 7.—The Thingvall Line steamer Hekia, which collided in the open ocean on May 27, with the Atlantic transport line steamer Mississippi, arrived here yesterday. At the time of the collision there were 400 passengers on the deck. The Hekia was going at reduced speed through a dense fog, and signalling uninterruptedly. Suddenly, the Mississippi was seen bearing straight down upon the Hekia's bow. The Hekia immediately reversed her engines, but too late to avoid a collision. The shock was terrific. The passengers were thrown in a state of panic. Women and children ran dilly, screaming about the decks. It was soon discovered, however, that the damage was all above the water line, and temporary repairs were speedily effected, and the vessel pushed on to her destination.

The Hekia's officers maintain that the Mississippi was responsible for the collision. They allege that she did not reduce her speed, nor did they hear her fog signals.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR RATES

And Excursion Rates in General are Making Lots of Trouble.

Chicago, June 7.—The western roads are already getting by the ears over the arrangements for the Christian Endeavor meeting in San Francisco. It is openly asserted that several of the lines are ignoring the provision that no sleeping car shall be allowed for parties of less than twenty-five, or for parties where the fare for each person has not been paid. Several of the roads, it is said, have agreed in several instances to allow sleeping cars for parties of fifteen. The Southern Pacific has notified all of the western roads that it will not be a party to any such arrangement, and that it will demand in all instances the full amount that is coming to it. It will not receive any sleeping cars carrying less than twenty-five passengers unless it receives twenty-five full fares for the people in the car.

It is probable that low passenger rates for special occasions will be in effect in the territory of the Western Passenger association during much of the summer. The Alton road seems to have adopted the plan of meeting the low rates of its competitors by placing in effect even lower rates than those made by the other lines. A large party of the Knights of the Macabees had secured a rate of one and one-third for today from Chicago to Peoria. The agreed rate was $5.50, and the Alton claimed that it had paid that the Wabash had cut the rate to $4.25. To meet this rate the Alton made a round trip rate of $5.00, and claims that the business of that figure, and at $2.00 there will be no profit in the traffic. The Alton asserts that it will repeat this whenever it is convinced that any agreement on rates is being ignored.

KANSAS CITY, MO., June 7.—The local passenger men have agreed to call their rate war off. The reduced rate between Chicago and Kansas City was withdrawn this morning, but the carriers continued to offer Chicago-Kansas City tickets at $8. Their rate was based on the Detroit rate of $10, with a refund at Chicago. It had been agreed to call off the $7.50 round trip rate between Kansas City and St. Louis, but when it became known that the Missouri Pacific had been issuing tickets good for today at the reduced rate, the other lines continued to give the same rate. It has been agreed that rates shall be restored tomorrow.
